- Bowl-A-Thon: September 16th at Santa Clarita Lanes. Start time is 12:00 noon. Cost is $15 (that includes bowling, shoes and pizza). Flyers are available tonight and in the band room for students to start collecting pledges.

Website:

- James DeRuvo: If you have photos or video for the website (or end of the year video) you can email them to Saugusband.com or upload them directly to the Saugus Band Google Photos account.

Public relations: Brian Post

- Signal article was published about band camp and preview on Saturday, August 5th, it looked great.

Fundraising Ideas

- Albertsons: Drum line or Pep Band will play at Albertsons some Saturdays to collect donations.
- Auction Baskets at Football Games and Gilchrist Farms: Has already gotten a trip to June Lake, a Smoker and Flight Lessons. Each section to also provide a basket to be auctioned. Brian will need 2 extra people to help in the booth at football games, will be in volunteer opportunities in Charms.

Color Guard: Mr. Jarrett

- Uniforms: Uniforms have been ordered. We will need parents to sew some things for the uniforms for the different movements (scenes) a vest for the western scene and long flowey dresses for the love scene. If interested please email Jay or Robin, they need to be completed by the beginning of October.
- Flags: New flags were ordered for the show.

- Guard will be using stick horses in part of the show.
- Sabres: Replaced sabres. Sold the 37" and purchased (8) 39" sabres. Mr. Jarrett will look into buying a few more sabres to insure all juniors and seniors have one.
- Parents brought up the color guard needing more than 15 minutes to change after practice in the mornings. Mr. Jarrett said he will release them 20 minutes before the end of the period to see if that helps.

Band: Mr. Jarrett

Purchase Requests

- Mellophone (Marching French Horn) we currently have 3 students in band that play mellophone but only own 2. Need to purchase at least 1 but will revisit in the spring for possibility of purchasing 2-3 more. Motion to approve the purchase of one Mellophone: Jeff Treanor; 2nd: Mike Richter. Motion passed.
- Trailer We need another 24'-25' trailer to haul all of the instruments and props. They cost approx. $7,500.-$9,500. new but can look for a used one. Motion to approve up to $5,000. for a trailer (at least 24' covered trailer in good condition): Mike Richter; 2nd: James Kang. Motion passed. Cyndi Gillis and James DeRuvo will look for a used trailer and get back to Mr. Jarrett.

Field Show

- Props: Panels in the back that can be moved and have vented vinyl scenery on them. Need parents to help build props, send Mr. Jarrett an email if you would like to help.

Volunteer Chair: Stacy Treanor

- Everyone was asked to log onto Charms and to RSVP to the Booster Meeting.
- Volunteer Opportunities will be done through CHARMS this year. Only 3 spots per family until Monday 8/21 then it will be open for anyone to fill-in open spots.
- Only signed up volunteers on the field please.
- Volunteers might not get into the competitions for free this year; it depends on what we get from each competition location.
- Volunteer Training Day will be Saturday, September 9th from 9:00-10:30a.m.
- Gilchrist Farms: October 28th Kids will be playing and performing. Cyndi Gillis will be the bake sale coordinator. We will need the families to provide items for the bake sale.

New Business:

- Cords for graduation: Mary Tesselaar brought up getting cords for the band and color guard for graduation. Jay will talk to Mr. Barr to see what color is available.
